300 ARMED MEN FIGHT GUNMEN

BLAMELESS IN FERNICROFT RAID SAYS MISS RYAN

Miss Elizabeth M. Ryan, whose $50,000 breach of promise suit against Harry K. Mansfield of Ferniccroft Inn entered upon its seventh week today, was recalled to the stand in rebuttal, by her attorney, Daniel H. Coakley.

Mr. Mansfield himself had been the first witness of the day, and a deposition by Frank G. Hall, manager of the Adams House, denying that he had ever kissed Miss Ryan, was read.

Miss Ryan testified that she never met J. Frank Chase of the Watch and Ward Society, never talked with him and knew nothing of the raid on Ferniccroft.

She said she acted as cashier and sold cigars at the Inn, and that she selected members for the Ferniccroft Club at 12 apiece, and got four or five hundred members in that way.

She testified that she gave up a position in New York to come to Boston at Mr. Mansfield's request.

DENIED PRESENCE WITH FITZ.
Mr. Hall's deposition was read by Attorney Daniel H. Coakley. Mr. Hall denied that he was in a room at Ferniccroft Inn with John F. Fitzgerald, James Mullon and Miss Ryan on a Sunday in September, 1912. He denied kissing Miss Ryan, and after referring to a diary he testified to how he spent each of the five holidays in that month.

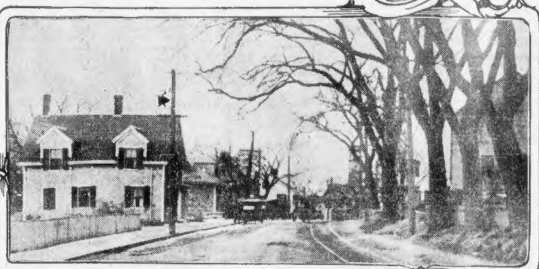

The crowd that waited hopefully for admission to the courtroom filled the corridors in both directions. Sheriff Quinn and four court officers kept them in check. Spectators were not permitted to enter the courtroom till some routine business had been transacted, when Judge Fawcett said to the court officers:

"Let the spectators in, and tell them they must be quiet while they are in here."

The court officers then passed spectators in, one or two at a time, till their seats were taken, then closed the doors again.

Attorney Coakley immediately called Mr. Mansfield as a witness in.

GERMANY WARNS U. S. SHIPS LIKELY TO BE SUNK UNLESS ENGLAND ALTERS ITS POLICY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The German government, in a note to the United States submitted to the State Department today through Ambassador Bernstorff, declared that Germany is willing to recede from its announced policy to attack British merchantmen, if Great Britain will cease interference with shipments of foodstuffs destined for the non-combatant population of Germany.

The German note asserted that the war zone proclamation was a retaliatory measure, adopted as a result of Great Britain's departure from rules of international law and her purpose to starve out Germany's civil population.

Ambassador Bernstorff, who delivered the note to Counsellor Lansing, said that the communication was of an intermediary character and was not to be regarded as Germany's full reply to the recent American note upon the war zone charges.

BRITISH MERCHANT VESSELS ARMED.
The German government set forth reasons why it was bound to act in this way. It stated that Great Britain had already armed her merchant ships with guns and machine guns, and that she was now arming them with torpedoes and other offensive weapons. It stated that this was a violation of international law, and that Germany was bound to retaliate.

After referring to the note the ambassador said that the German government was willing to recede from its policy, if Great Britain would do the same. He stated that the German government was willing to accept the international law, if Great Britain would do the same.

Montenegrin Royal Family Bombarded

CETTINE, Feb. 15.—Two Austrian airplanes bombarded the Montenegrin royal palace at Cetina on Sunday and a number of bullets fell near the spot where King Nicholas, the Queen and other members of the family were standing. When the alarm was given the members of the royal family left the palace and retreated in the courtyard, from which they watched the hostile air machine. When over the palace the Austrian aviators opened fire with machine guns and a number of bullets fell within a few yards of the King and Queen and the royal princess. Finally the machine left.

U. S. MARINES AND MILITIA CLOSE IN ON FUGITIVE AT BAY IN WOODS OF WEST HINGHAM

Two hundred United States marines under orders to "shoot to kill," State militiamen armed with rifles, and citizens and police armed with revolvers and clubs this afternoon surrounded a clump of woods at West Hingham where they were convinced they had brought to bay one of the three men who shot and seriously wounded Washington Irving James, Hingham's chief of police.

Two other men have already been arrested in connection with the shooting. Under military escort to prevent an attack by their friends in an attempt to free them, the two were taken to the Abington court where they were charged with assault with intent to kill Chief James and were each held in $10,000 for a hearing on February 23.

GERMANY REPLIES TO U. S. WARNING

A campaign to drive out our non-combatants by shutting off our supplies of food and other necessities is being conducted in such a way as to make our position untenable.

The United States government has warned that it would protect its ships from attack by German submarines, which immediately have attacked.

It was long held that if Great Britain were to attack Germany, Germany would not attack Britain, but now it is clear that Germany is not bound by such a promise.

GERARD SEES NO CHANCE OF CONFLICT WITH THE GERMANS

BRITAIN, Feb. 15.—Ambassador Gerard is quoted in the National Zeitung today on the situation brought about by the presentation of the American note to the German government relative to neutral shipping in the sea war recently created by Germany.

The ambassador is reported as declaring that the note is couched in such courteous and friendly terms that he did not doubt it would have a favorable result.

He expressed regret at the sharp tone of some of the American and German newspapers, but said he was sure that this would not disturb the friendly relations between the two countries.

He should Germany and the United States were at war on each other, he would have no objection to the United States attacking Germany, but he said that his interests opposed each other.

The ambassador also is reported as asking how such a war could be waged, since no intelligent could engage the other effectively because of their geographical position, and as saying that it would have to be an economic war.

Asked by the interviewer concerning the possibility of Germany attacking the United States, Ambassador Gerard is reported to have declared that he had no objection to the United States attacking Germany, but he said that his interests opposed each other.

REFEREE DISPUTE OVER RITCHIE GO

By JACK CONWAY.

THE bout between Champion Freddie Welch and Willie Ritchie, which is scheduled to be decided in New York on March 15, has called forth a great amount of disagreement over the referee who is to officiate. Freddie Welch declares that Ritchie will have a fair fight with him, and says that Ritchie will not referee. Johnstone and Welch are standing by their guns and assert that there will not be any fight unless Ritchie is allowed to be master of ceremonies at the big bout. Ritchie, however, is determined to see Johnstone and Welch and says that he is going to be a prominent party in naming the referee and that there will not be any contest unless he is permitted to have his way in this matter.

THERE are few men connected with the boxing game who are so shrewd and clever as Ritchie. He is usually pretentious, being an able manager, and if Johnstone, Welch & Co. believe that they are going to "out" him, they are in for a fight. Ritchie would like to see Johnstone and Welch and says that he is going to be a prominent party in naming the referee and that there will not be any contest unless he is permitted to have his way in this matter.

WHEN Johnstone mailed Ritchie the articles of agreement, which were sent him by Johnstone, Welch & Co., Ritchie was not at all pleased. He had been told that he was to be a prominent party in naming the referee and that there will not be any contest unless he is permitted to have his way in this matter.

NO decisions are permitted in New York, but a boxer must still be careful in naming the referee for an important match. The referee has the right to interpret the rules of the sport, while he is also able to disqualify a boxer. Ritchie realizes that his entire ring future depends upon the referee he makes agree to. Consequently he does not intend to take unnecessary chances.

BILLY RITCHIE is an honest and reliable referee, but he has been too close to Welch since the latter won the championship to treat the challenger impartially. Ritchie is very friendly to Welch, and his friends are very friendly to Welch. Ritchie is very friendly to Welch, and his friends are very friendly to Welch.

BOSTON MAY GET BIG PIN TOURNEY

BOSTON, Baltimore and Washington are today making their last efforts to win the first tournament of the newly organized Atlantic Coast Bowling Association, which will be held in New York on March 15. The tournament will be a great event for the city, and it is expected that a large number of bowlers will participate.
